Taizhou Guoguang Building Materials Co., Ltd. is a modern plastic flooring enterprise integrating product research and development, design, production and sales. The company has international advanced automated production equipment and research and development concepts, superb production process and scientific management to provide a strong guarantee for the high quality of plastic products.

The company's products are complete in variety, suitable for hospitals, schools, office buildings, shopping malls, factories, nursing homes and many other engineering projects.